All Levels	Literature	Biography: Life Is In The Air	The purpose is to help students understand and tell the difference between a biography, an autobiography, and collective biography are. The display will have examples, call numbers, and library location for each. This display began as a Power Point presentation and could be used to help students review the material presented in the lesson.	Maria Esther Peynado	Maricela Molina	Mercedes ISD
All Levels	Other	Open Library Days	Invite your students to utilize the library during non-school days, holidays, summer, etc.	Rosalva Garcia		Westlaco ISD
Elementary	Literature	Keep Calm & Bring Stories To Life!	How do we bring stories to life? Story time can be so much more than reading words from a page. Make read-a-louds more efficient and more memorable through different activities that will impact students to fall in love with literature.	Belinda P. Saenz	Angie Hinojosa	Westlaco ISD
Elementary	Literature	Take A Look And Choose A Book!	Do your students have problems choosing a good book? Host a Reading Fair and allow students the opportunity to display their favorite book by creating a poster.	Delma Padraza		Westlaco
Elementary	Other	Make Students Shine!	Librarians can extend their service beyond the library by sponsoring a group. Incorporating a mentoring club helps promote students' self-esteem and leadership skills, an interest in helping others and a joy in learning from each other.	Angie Hinojosa	Belinda P. Saenz	Westlaco ISD
Elementary	Library Programming	Million Word Reading... Every Word Counts	Getting students to read for pleasure is always a challenge! At F.D. Roosevelt we provide a wide variety of activities to motivate students to read. Our Million Word Challenge is one of the most popular reading programs and really motivates our students to visit the Library more often. As part of this program we provide two bulletin boards that track the students' progress. At the end of each semester we provide a fieldtrip to reward students for meeting reading goals set by our Reading Committee.	Maria A. Gomez		Westlaco ISD
Elementary	Library Programming	The Great Big Bow Hunt!	Host a challenging event at the end of your students reading accomplishments by having students win books or other prizes by shooting for their prize using bows and arrows designed and meant for indoor/ outdoor use. Increase your students' personal reading book circulations and interest in reading due to the simple fact that they will love the chance at using these bows.	Moses Castillo		Westlaco ISD
Elementary	Other	"Biography - Wax Museum"	Set up your very own Madame Tussauds Museum and let it come to life! Usually teaching Genres can be repetitive and at times boring for students but not when students get involved and are told they will make money and get to keep it! Students will enjoy using their research skills to find biographical information, dress up and role play on their favorite historical figure. Students may use props and will charge a fee of .25 cents to small groups of students for their performance. Students will give a speech on where their historical figure was born, who their parents were, and what were their most important accomplishments in life. The student who attracts the most viewers or customers will get a prize from the librarian and in addition the students get to keep the money.	Aida Mancias		Brownsville I.S.D.
Middle School/Jr. High	Other	Showcasing Your Library	Showcase your library by personalizing with students' pictures and students' work.	Cynthia Perales		Westlaco
Middle School/Jr. High	Technology	Skills For The 21st Century Learner	Get students excited about learning cursive writing skills through technology in the library. Students need to learn these skills for everyday life. They will learn cursive writing with specific iPad apps designed for fun library lessons.	Velma Zapata	Rosalva Garcia	Westlaco
Middle School/Jr. High	Technology	21st Century Learning @ Your Library	21st century calls for new skills, knowledge and ways of learning to prepare students with abilities to address the challenges of a changing world. Promoting our library through coding, gaming and reading eBooks is just another way to encourage students to participate in library activities. Come see some of our exciting events.	Elsa Robles		Westlaco ISD
High School	Technology	A Cafe, B.Y.O.D., eBooks, And Teens!	The purpose of our display is to share ideas which work with a Project Based Learning and Bring Your Own Device campus. What happens when you combine a cafe, a BYOD environment, a predominantly eBook collection, and teens? We use our contemporary libraries, technology, and BYOD to keep teens reading.	Ana A.
